To: Personal Property Accounts claiming tax exemption for certain renewable energy systems

From: Kara J. Fishman, Assessor

Regarding: Exemptions for new installations

If you filed an application for a personal property tax exemption on Solar Energy Systems in previous years, you do not need to refile this year unless there have been alterations. Complete the attached Tax Exemption Application only for new and altered existing installations.

If you need the form for fuel cell exemption, please ask the Assessor.

Please call or email with any questions.
